

EGYPT 1903

A DISCOGRAPHY OF THE GRAMOPHONE COMPANY'S FIRST EGYPTIAN RECORDINGS

Recording engineer : Georg Franz HAMPE
Location : probably Alexandria (2nd option : Cairo)

7-inch (18cm) in « C » matrix series
- consecutive list of matrix numbers
- consecutive list of catalogue or side numbers

10-inch (25cm) in « Z » matrix series
- consecutive list of matrix numbers
- consecutive list of catalogue or side numbers

The majority of these recordings were later reissued on the ZONOPHONE label.

For the time being all transliterations of titles, makams and names of artists have been copied verbatim, i.e. as they appear in catalogues, EMI registers, EMI ledgers and on record labels.

A modern-day version of these transliterations has been planned.

I thank the indefatigable Alan Kelly for kindly sharing his files with me, thus enabling me to make a number of additions and corrections.

A number of items remain unsolved, especially those recordings which were never released and have become “ghost” items in the discography.

Franz Hampe(?) at the office of Kenneth Muir, manager of the Italian Branch of The Gramophone Company
(Milan, 26 October 1904)

562/563 z : Alan Kelly has: Hassan Fouad (instead of Nasr Hassanein)

586 z : Alan Kelly has : Cheikh Said El Safti

578/579 z : Nafoussa El Bimbachia? Grazia? Sarifa Arnaoutia? Fatma El Baghalla?

601/602 z : Alan Kelly has part I and part II in reverse order.

I follow Kelly here, but am not sure if this is a mistake or a deliberate decision based on foolproof data.
